Services

Interactive Brokers provides order-execution service accounts as described below.

Products

We offer access to the following investment products:

- Cash equivalents (e.g. T-Bills and money market instruments)
- Fixed income or debt securities (e.g. bonds)
- Equities including warrants and fractions of U.S. equities (e.g., fractional shares).
- Exchange traded funds
- Derivatives (e.g. options and futures)
- Currencies (leveraged and non-leveraged)

We also offer certain eligible clients a prepaid Mastercard issued by Peoples Trust Company and the ability to lend out full-paid securities and receive a fee to do so.

Your account may become subject to restrictions rendering your temporarily or permanently unable to liquidate or resell an investment product you own.

You may incur investment management expense fees or other ongoing fees in connection with certain exchange-traded investment funds you purchase through us causing such fees to potentially compound over time and adversely impact your investment returns.

We may receive or be expected to receive benefits directly from such exchange-traded funds in connection with your purchase or ownership of such fund units through us.

Product Limits

We do not offer access to proprietary trading products and we do not offer Locked-in plans, Registered Retirement Income Funds (RRIF) or annuity products. IBC does not accommodate any withdrawals under the Home Buyer's Plan and the Lifelong Learning Plan nor any investments in a home mortgage.

Account Types and How They Operate

Order-Execution Service Account

With our Regular and Registered Plan (RSP and TFSA) accounts ("Order-Execution Service Account"), you can enter orders using our online trading platform, the IB TWS or mobile application. We provide you comprehensive support, tools and resources to help you make informed investment decisions and be confident in your investment choices.

You acknowledge that we will not be responsible for making a suitability determination for you nor will we provide you with any recommendations and, in particular, we will not consider your personal and financial circumstances, investment needs and objectives, investment knowledge, risk profile, investment time horizon, nor other similar factors and we will not be responsible for making a determination that the products and account types we offer are appropriate for you.

You further acknowledge that you are solely responsible for your all investment decisions in your account.

Fees and How They Are Calculated

The fees you pay are explained in the Pricing Overview document provided to you at the time of account opening. More detailed and up-to-date information on our commissions and fees can also be found on the Pricing section of our website at www.interactivebrokers.ca

Our Reporting To You

Trade Confirmations

When you buy or sell securities, a trade confirmation will be made available to you electronically within one business day of the trade date. It will contain the details of the transaction including but not limited to:

- Security name, marketplace and dates
- Amount paid by you for a purchase or paid to you on a sale
- Amount of any commission, spread, charge or fee applied

Account Statements

Daily and monthly account statements are available electronically. Security position original cost is provided daily. Cumulative realized and unrealized capital gains is provided daily, monthly or annually.

Account Performance

You will have access to Interactive Brokers' Portfolio Analyst (PA), our proprietary online performance evaluation tool. PA lets you analyze the performance of your account online as often as you wish. Account percentage return is based on either time or dollar weighted calculation method daily, monthly, quarterly or annually.

Investment Benchmarks

Investment benchmarks generally provide a broad measure of the return generated by specific asset classes over a given period. An Investment Benchmark can be used as a standard against which the performance of a security or investment portfolio can be measured. The most common form of investment benchmark is an index ? such as a stock or bond index. Some common broad based market benchmarks include the S&P/TSX Composite Index, FTSE TMX Canada Universe Bond, and the S&P 500 Index.

Measuring the return of your portfolio against appropriate benchmarks can be an effective way of assessing the relative performance of your investments. However, when selecting a benchmark you should carefully consider a benchmark that reflects your investments.

Conflicts of Interest

We have adopted policies and procedures to assist us to identify and control any conflict of interest that we may face. For full details on our conflict of interest policies, please see the Conflict of Interest Statement section of the Interactive Brokers Canada Inc. Account Agreements and Disclosure Documents provided to you at the time of account opening. Since the Conflict of Interest Statement may be updated periodically, you can be provided with an updated copy upon request.

Any existing material conflict of interest, and material conflict of interest that is reasonably foreseeable and which is not avoided, will be addressed in your best interest and will be disclosed to you, where required, in a timely manner, upon identification of the conflict.
